Social Responsibility

A national and humanitarian duty, and a long-term investment

APIC invests 6.7% of its net profits for the year 2022 in Corporate Social Responsibility, amounting to USD 2 million

APIC group continues its support for the communities within which it operates through its proactive funding of institutions with a meaningful and effective vision in the charitable and humanitarian fields, with a focus on orphans, persons with disabilities, low-income families, and institutions of education, health, youth, and entrepreneurial sectors. In 2022, APIC contributed, through financial and in-kind support for eighty-five organizations, approximately USD 2 million, which is equal to 6.7% of the company's net profit.

APIC's strategic and effective Corporate Social Responsibility program stems from its understanding of the importance of participating and contributing as a national and humanitarian duty and as a long-term investment to achieve social, economic, and environmental sustainability, and to build and empower resilient societies able to face all circumstances and challenges.

Dual Study is an educational system that combines theoretical study with practical application. Al-Quds University launched the Dual Studies program in 2015, designed to contribute to raising the professional level of Palestinian youth and supplying good jobs for students after graduation. Moreover, it aims to bridge the gap between the academic educational outcomes and the needs and requirements of the Palestinian labor market. The program follows a German approach, which focuses on the integration of academic study and linking students with the work environment from the start. This methodology provides students with the opportunity to study at Al-Quds University as well as have the chance to practice in the field of their study at a specialized Palestinian company until they complete their bachelor's degree.

“My experience with the Dual Studies program was and always will be exceptional, through it I started my journey with Oyoun Media two years ago. I have learned so much, and I am still learning. The Dual Studies program sent me on a road of self-discovery, on both the professional and the personal aspects. I've learned the importance of discipline, commitment, responsibility, and accountability. I've also learned the significance of healthy communication, time management, problem solving, and teamwork”
